

HB 1299-S - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/10/05)

Finds that a number of tax exemptions, deductions, credits, and other preferences have outlived their usefulness. State records show no taxpayers have claimed relief under these tax preferences in recent years. The intent of this act is to update and simplify the tax statutes by repealing these outdated tax preferences.